European Day of Languages

Bonjour tout le monde!

Tuesday 26th September is the official European Day of Languages. In order to celebrate this and raise the profile and importance of languages there will be activities for staff and pupils to participate in throughout the week. From Tuesday onwards, there will be a 'Languages Lunchtime Treasure Hunt' which will be promoted to pupils during lessons.

Steph Milne, Head of Languages faculty

Governor Opportunities

We have opportunities for people to become governors of Fairlands Middle School. No previous school experience is needed. The role of a governor is to support school leaders with your skill set and be the checks and balances, helping the school and the Wessex Learning Trust ensure that we get the best for our young people. Training will be provided. This volunteer role is not a 'hands-on role' and is less onerous than perhaps one in a school that is not in a trust. The Trust Board hold ultimate responsibility and set overall strategy. The Wessex Central Team is made up of staff with a wide range of business and educational skill sets that support schools and governors. This allows local governors to focus on the education and development of young people. If you would like to find out more, please email the Clerk of the governing body, Debbie Andrews, DAndrews@fairlandsmiddleschool.co.uk

School Communications/Letters
