Commemorating Remembrance Day

On Friday 10 November, our school community at Fairlands took part in a very special assembly led by the Royal British Legion to commemorate Remembrance Day. Mrs Boorman led a parade with children from cadets, scouts, guides, and other services around the school grounds before we all took part in a shared minute's silence after the brass band played The Last Post.

This was a moving and poignant ceremony that reminded us all of the sacrifices made by our armed forces personnel, both past and present. It was also a valuable opportunity for our children to learn more about the importance of Remembrance Day and why we commemorate it.

I would like to thank the Royal British Legion for their support in organising this assembly, and to all of the staff and pupils who took part. It was a fitting tribute to those who have served our country and to the values that they represent.
